CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE.

RAY, MEDILL & CO., PUBLISHERS.

OFFICE IN THE TRIBUNE BUILDINGS, 51 CLARK STREET.

VOL. XI. CHICAGO WEDNESDAY MORNING FEBRUARY 10 1858. NO. 208.

TERMS—EIGHT DOLLARS PER YEAR.

DAILY TRIBUNE.

Wednesday Morning.....Feb. 10, 1858.

REPUBLICAN WARD MEETINGS AND CITY CONVENTION.

The Republican voters of the city of Chicago are requested to meet in their respective Wards, at the places hereinafter designated, on FRIDAY, the 12th day of February, at 7½ o'clock P. M., for the selection of candidates to be voted for by the City at large, at the ensuing ward municipal election, and for the nomination of candidates for Ward Offices, to be chosen by delegates from their respective Wards to the Ward Conventions, at 7½ o'clock precisely. The delegates to the Conventions are apportioned as follows:

First Ward.....	9	Fifth Ward.....	11
Second Ward.....	7	Sixth Ward.....	11
Third Ward.....	7	Seventh Ward.....	11
Fourth Ward.....	11	Eighth Ward.....	11

The places of holding the meetings in the different Wards will be as follows:

First Ward—City Hotel.
Second Ward—Second Ward Hall.
Third Ward—Tremont House, Court House.
Fourth Ward—Empire House No. 2.
Fifth Ward—Market Hall.
Sixth Ward—Ward's House No. 2.
Seventh Ward—Cottage House, corner of Lake and Jefferson streets.
Eighth Ward—Hobart's Saloon, on Clark street, between Randolph and Huron streets.
South West—Lake House.
South West—Newton's Hotel, corner Canal and Madison streets.

The delegates elected at the Ward meetings will meet in Convention in ARCADE HARMEP HALL, on SATURDAY, the 13th day of February, at 9 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of making nominations.

By order of the Republican Committee.

N. B. JUDD, President.

B. F. Bowman, Secretary.

Iowa.—The Republicans of Iowa have called a State Convention to meet at Iowa City on the 27th day of June next, for nominating candidates for Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer and Attorney General, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the Convention.

They are not Jolly.

We cannot hear of any particular rejoicings on the part of the tax-eaters of this city since the fact that Gross knocked down KNITT, or that WASHBURNE moved a swarth through the rebel Knitt knocked down Gross, and but the Fire-Eaters whipped the Republicans, then the tax-eaters would have howled with delight. It was our bull that gored their ox; and they are not in a theoretical mood, "lest their motives might be misconstrued." In his apology to the House, KNITT says that if Gross struck him he was not conscious of receiving the blow.

We are at a loss to interpret his meaning. The libs is wished to convey must be that either he was drunk, and oblivious to passing occurrences or that Gross hit him such a lick that it knocked his recollection of the spelling over, out of him. The latter is probably what he means.

Gibbon at Springfield.

JOHN CALHOUN formerly was immensely popular at Springfield, the old house. He is yet a Democratic soldier in Illinois, being to the day one of the three Trustees for winding up the affairs of the old State Bank. When, in the winter of 1837, Gov. DUNDLE attempted to remove him and his associates and appoint men, he was resisted by the unanimous Democracy and his right violently disputed. A case is now before the Supreme Court growing out of this matter, in which UNDERWOOD is the party on the Government and the other. The fact that CALHOUN had left the State and was in the pay of the Federal Government, did not affect the zeal of his party friends in his behalf. He was a Democrat of the purest stamp, and the Governor a Republican; and that was enough. They went in for JOHN, and JOHN went in for his salary.

During his late visit to Illinois his reception was not the most cordial. No one—not even its oldest and most intimate party friends—called on him to do him honor. His stay was brief and uncomfortable both to him and the citizens who would have been glad had he remained a few hours more, to have detained him indefinitely. JOHN looked shabby and rollicking. His inseparable companion—a revolver, not the "pocket pistol" from which he drawn his political inspiration—was in his trousers pocket, ready at a second's warning. The end of the barrel had worn a hole in the cloth, and as he walked around, the emblem of his principles was seen plainly sticking out. His attention was called to what, with his Kansas experiences, seemed to him a "trivial matter;" and one man, a former friend, piously hoped that the shooting from might go off some day and put an end to a life that had become too miserable to be longer preserved; but JOHN justified his display of weapons by distortions against the bloody Abolitionists of Kansas who are hungering and thirsting for his blood. JOHN'S going was more sudden than his coming. He disappointed a few creditors and rid the city of an intolerable burden. Everybody, Democrats, Republicans and Americans breathed a purer air after his exit. He will probably return to Illinois no more.

Rich Ward Aldermen.

The Bowen-Heffan Alderman of the Sixth Ward is using extraordinary exertions, and sparing no expense to effect his re-election. He was carried into the Council two years ago by the flood that drifted DYRA into the Mayoralty.

He is making his boast that he can not be "run out;" he has great ideas of his popularity; he conceives himself to be a perfect prodigy; he counts largely on the magic influence of the "old man" in his favor. He is electioneering every man in the Ward—canvassing, whining and chattering at the heels of good Republicans for their votes. He is scattering cards in the breeze, on which is the following:

FOR ALDERMAN OF THE SIXTH WARD,
HENRY GREENEBAUM.

If elected, it will be my ambition to merit the confidence of my Constituents, and to serve the true interests of the Ward, my self.

H. GREENEBAUM.

If he had said "My aim is 10 per cent a month, secured by a cut-throat mortgage," he would have expressed himself much more truthfully.

From the day that GREENEBAUM took his seat to the present moment, next to La Salle, he has been the most malignant and unscrupulous Border-Ruffian in the Council. He is a pocket edition of LA MOTTE and the Governor and Lecompton. The fact that GREENEBAUM

DAILY TRIBUNE.

No. 51 CLARK STREET.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

Wednesday Morning, Dec. 10, 1856.

Terms to Subscribers.

Terms to Advertisers.

Special Notices.

Miscellaneous.

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers.

Dry Goods.

Clothing.

Carpets, Oil Cloths, &c.

Furniture.

Stoves and Tinware.

Hardware and Cutlery.

Groceries and Provisions.

Hats, Caps and Furs.

Jewelry, Watches and Silverware.

Books and Stationery.

Medical.

Miscellaneous.

Boots & Shoes.

Clothing.

Miscellaneous.

Special Notices.

Removal! D. A. COOKE & CO. HAVE REMOVED to the Store of the late Wm. Dunbarr and Wash-ington Block, corner Dearborn and South Water-sts.

D. B. COOKE & CO.,

A SHORE NEW AND ELEGANT STORE, PORTLAND BLOCK, corner Dearborn and Wash-ington-sts., for the sale of their well-known

PERSTALTIC BOOTS,

Manufactured at the Factory, Brockton, Mass., and Retailed at the Store of D. B. COOKE & CO., Agents for the New England States. 1m

---

SMITH'S

Lives of American Merchants.

THE LIVES OF AMERICAN MER-CHANTS, by Freder[ick] Hud. A. M. Editor of the [illegible] With authentic Portraits, on Steel.

[illegible] Francis Ward[illegible]
[illegible] Amos Lawrence,
[illegible] Abbott Lawrence,
[illegible] Jonathan Goodhue, Jun.
[illegible] Stephen Girard,
[illegible] Peter Harvey,
[illegible] Samuel Appleton,
[illegible] Israel Thorndike,
[illegible] Nathan Appleton,
[illegible] Joseph Peabody,
[illegible] Robert Gilmor, Jun.
[illegible] Joseph Coolidge, Jun.
[illegible] Thomas Handasyd Perkins,
[illegible] Joseph Peabody,
[illegible] Joseph W. Revere,
[illegible] Joseph Coolidge,
[illegible] Joseph Peabody,
[illegible] Joseph Peabody,
[illegible] Joseph Peabody

Legal Notices.

Mortgage Sale.

DEFAULT HAVING BEEN MADE BY

PUBLICATION NOTICE.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, Cook County, ss.

Cook County Circuit Court,

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

CHANCERY NOTICE.

STATE OF ILLINOIS—COOK COUNTY—ss.

Circuit Court of Cook County,

AFFIDAVIT OF THE NON-RESIDENCE

CHANCERY NOTICE.

STATE OF ILLINOIS—COUNTY OF COOK—ss.

Circuit Court of Cook County,

AFFIDAVIT OF THE NON-RESIDENCE

PUBLICATION NOTICE.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, Cook County, ss.

Cook County Circuit Court,

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN